Spurwink is pleased to honor William J. Ryan as our 2006 Humanitarian of the Year.

“Bill Ryan is an icon in Maine,” said Spurwink President Peter McPherson. “He has given tirelessly of his time, talent and resources to make Maine a better place for so many people. We are thrilled he has accepted this well deserved honor as Spurwink’s 20th Humanitarian of the Year.”

William J. Ryan is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of TD Banknorth Inc. In this position, he oversees all banking and financial services for TD Banknorth in eight northeastern states, making TD Banknorth one of the 25 largest commercial banking organizations in the United States.

Bill also serves as Director and Vice Chairman of TD Bank Financial Group, as well as the Group Head of U.S. Personal and Commercial Banking.

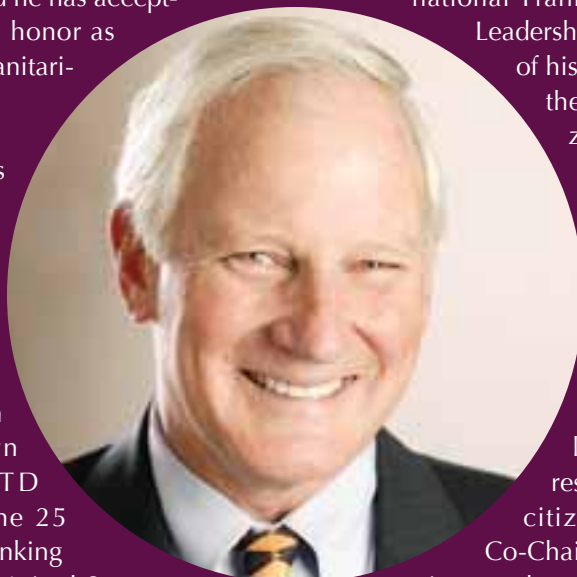

In his community life, Bill serves on the Board of Directors of WellPoint, Inc., and UnumProvident Corporation, and as a Trustee of Colby College and the Libra Foundation. He also serves on the Board of Advisors at the University of New England, and participates in various civic and professional activities.

In 2004, Ryan received the March of Dimes’ national Franklin Delano Roosevelt Leadership Award in recognition of his work and advocacy for the mission of the organization. Ryan is one of only seven recipients to receive this prestigious honor throughout the 60-year history of the March of Dimes.

“Every aspect of Bill’s life embodies values of responsibility, service and citizenship,” said Dinner Co-Chair Joe Wishcamper, “He is a true humanitarian.”

Dinner Co-Chair David Ott adds, “Bill Ryan chose community banking as his profession because of his belief in community and vision of the positive impact his industry and leadership can make. Maine is fortunate to be the beneficiary of Bill’s talents and work.”
